

Example Email to Editor

Subject: Question about Article for [Journal name]

Hello [First name of editor],

I'm working on an article/webtext that deals with [subject]. It is tentatively titled: "[Cool sounding title here]," and it explains/describes why/how [short/simple description of the activity, tutorial, or technology around which your article is based].

The article/text will [two sentence description of the aims/goals of the article/webtext].

Does this sound like a project that [Journal name] would consider?

Best,
[Full name]